

ABSTRACT

Plant Safety Culture

Panelists

Mike D'Avico, Plant Manager, Oglethorpe Power

Mike Garrett, Manager Safety & Health, IHI Power Services Corp.

Matt Richards, Plant Manager, Heorot Power

What makes a great safety culture? What does "great" mean for your organization?

Please join us for a dynamic interchange as we discuss safety committees, safety programs and safety outlooks. This session will explore the contrasts and similarities among a Utility, Government-Owned Utility, and IPP, and help you better understand the best balance for improving your plant's safety culture.
